

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Move from doing the work to running it.

36 units. Evening and hybrid classes for professionals in government, nonprofits, and public agencies.

Where an MPA can take you

The management track across public service

City & county

Management analyst, budget analyst, city manager track

Nonprofit sector

Program director, development officer, operations lead

Health & human services

Public health administrator, contracts and grants manager

Justice & public safety

Agency administration, planning, emergency management

Education admin

Campus and district operations, student affairs

Special districts

Water, transit, parks, regional planning and policy

Built around a working schedule

Evenings, Monday–Thursday, 7:00–9:45 pm

A mix of in-person and online courses

36 units, three years part-time

Most students take two courses a term; two years full-time

A cohort of working professionals

Classmates bring current agency and nonprofit experience

Capstone seminar, not a thesis

POSC 521 carries the comprehensive exam

CORE COURSEWORK • 21 UNITS

- Foundations of Public Administration
- Administrative Research & Analysis
- Organizational Theory & Behavior
- Public Budgeting & Finance
- Human Resources Management
- Capstone Seminar
- One breadth course: POSC 519, 525, or 528

CONCENTRATION + ELECTIVES • 15 UNITS

Human Resources • Public Finance • Local Government • Public Policy

ALUMNI WORK AT County of Orange • Yorba Linda Water District • City of Fountain Valley • California State University and many more

UNITS

36

FORMAT

Evening & hybrid, professional-friendly

APPLY BY • 2026–27

Fall — early May Spring — Nov 15

PART-TIME TUITION 2026–27

$2,480 / term

CA resident, 6 units • plus campus fees

NEXT STEP

Come talk to us — or apply tonight.
mpa.fullerton.edu

MPA Program • Division of Politics, Administration & Justice • mpaprogram@fullerton.edu • (657) 278-3521

Updated September 2026

APPLY NOW
SCAN FOR PROGRAM DETAILS